Shirley's Share

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

—Philippians 2:5-11

Self-emptying, humility, slavery, obedience. I'm not sure we respond any more positively today to these words than did those Romans in the first century! Yet this is what Paul calls us to do as Christians, because that is what Jesus did. When Paul speaks of humility in Philippians, he has in mind the first man, Adam, and the first woman, Eve, who would not, could not, live humbly but were enticed by the serpent to think of themselves as being like God. "You will not die," the serpent said to Eve, "for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil" (Genesis 3). Whenever we start to think of ourselves as something more than God's beloved but humble creatures, we begin to relive this ancient tale. I like what William Temple said: "Humility does not mean thinking less of yourself than of other people, nor does it mean having a low opinion of your own gifts. It means freedom from thinking about yourself at all."

Humility is a necessary component in relationships; whether they be love relations, work relationships, familial relations, friendships, or even just driving in Friday night traffic! Walking humbly before the Lord and others puts us in a position to observe, to listen, to begin to understand the deeper issues that may be happening around us. So swallow your pride occasionally, it's non-fattening! And remember—as this church year turns from Easter to ordinary time and spring turns to summer—that serving others is more satisfying than serving yourself, and humility can become the way into greater and more meaningful relationships with others, yourself, and certainly with God. For it is good to remember that the entire population of the universe, with one trifling exception, is composed of others. Pax.

Confirmands—Annual Trip to Chicago

As scheduled, we will take our annual road trip to Chicago, leaving on Thursday, June 14, and returning June 19. We will visit urban/inner churches in the Chicago area. We will also do some sightseeing and have some fun.

We believe it is very important for these young people to have personal experiences such as visiting different churches and places outside of our own congregation. Thanks to the 2006 Rummage Sale for supporting this trip to Chicago! The 7th- and 8th-grade confirmands had a car wash on Sunday, May 13, and raised $410 for the trip.

—Pastor Kwanza Yu

Congratulations to David Ranheim

David Ranheim has received an honorary Doctorate in Humane Letters from Macalester College on Saturday, May 12. David is an alumnus of Macalester and has served on the Board of Trustees for 30 years, where he was chair for five years. He has also served on search committees for the last four presidents, chairing two of those, including the most recent search committee.

Volunteers Needed

The American Council of the Blind is holding its annual convention in Minneapolis June 28–July 8. Six hundred (!) volunteers are needed to assist attendees at the airport (coming and going), at the hotel in downtown Minneapolis, and in moving around the exhibit floor. Hope Garden News

Since the curb against the west and north sides of the church has been brought out, we now have room for a garden there. Tom Peluf of University Lutheran Church of Hope has designed a beautiful garden for this area. Tom has been in the landscaping business for more than 20 years. His company, Terrapin Enterprise, has installed many landscapes and gardens in both commercial and residential settings around town.

The plants he has selected for the Hope garden include special cultivars of rose, flowering shrubs, evergreens, lilac, ornamental grass, and perennial flowers. He has selected them for height appropriateness; tolerance to conditions of drought, heat, or shade; color impact; and blooming times throughout the growing season. Facilities and the Garden Club will be installing the garden on May 19 under Tom's supervision.

This garden will be a blessing to the Sunday School children and Pease students, as well as to those driving into the parking lot looking for the north entrance (which is just about everybody).

Thank You

Thanks to Gloria Circle for paying for the new lamps in the Lounge.

Facilities

April/May were busy months. The Garden Group had a planting marathon, Facilities had a cleanup day, and the new downspouts were put up and look great! We have the Trust Board to thank for the downspouts, because there wasn't any budget for them.

Arloene Stevens, Carmen Macoskey, and Kathy Knudson transformed the Lounge kitchen by taking down the cabinet doors, fixing/finishing, cleaning, and painting the whole kitchen. Next on the agenda: a donated refrigerator/freezer and a knowledgeable volunteer needed to replace the countertop and take it from a double sink to a single sink. Materials supplied!

Just a reminder, we always have little projects going. We meet at 7:00 p.m. on the third Wednesday every month.

Faith Formation Opportunities

Summer Reading Program

The Summer Reading Program for all ages begins June 24. This is a relaxed, flexible program to enrich the minds and hearts of all ages. Come for one week or come for all six. Continental breakfast is at 8:40 a.m. From 9:00–9:50 a.m. there will be a book discussion for adults, a movie/book discussion for youth in grades 7–12, a book discussion/activities for grades 4–6, and story time/activities for younger children. For the youngest ones, nursery care will be provided.

Adults: Read and discuss two books. The first book for adults will be Christ the Lord: Out of Egypt, a novel by Anne Rice, to be discussed on June 24 and July 1 & 8. The second book will be The Myth of a Christian Nation: How the Quest for Political Power is Destroying the Church, by Pastor Gregory Boyd, to be discussed on July 15, 22, & 29. You can read some or all or each book and come to one or several of the discussion groups. These books will be available for purchase at a discounted price beginning June 3.

Youth (entering grades 7–12) will have a movie/book discussion in the youth room. Who knows which ones? Be surprised!

Grades 4–6 (entering in the fall) will read excerpts of books and do activities. Some students will wish to buy and read the whole book.

Children age 4 through grade 3 will have story time, with different people reading books each week and planning games and crafts centered around the story books.

There is a team of people planning this program: Ann Beane, Sarah Burson, Clara Dunnwald, Bruce Eldevik, Marjorie Haddad, Sharon Peterson, Sonja Peterson, Nicoletta Pignatello, Jo Schroeder, Diane Shallue, Mary Ann Teske, Rebecca Tetlie, and Karen Westwood. Others will be joining the team in the future.

Help is still needed: If you are interested in helping with activities for children, reading stories to children, helping with the continental breakfast, or caring for and reading books to the littlest ones, please contact Diane Shallue at (612) 331-5988, ext. 19.

Music & Arts Camp, August 19–22

This year we are offering experiences in vocal instruction; playing handbells, chimes & Orff instruments; and in art and drama. Cost: $25 per student. This is for young people grades 2 through 9. High-school students are invited to participate as assistants. Schedule: Sunday from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.; Monday through Wednesday from 6:00 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Please invite your friends, as non-members are welcome. There is room for 40 students. The registration deadline is July 15. After that we cannot guarantee spots for University Lutheran Church of Hope members. Pick up one of the bright yellow registration brochures at church.

New Curriculum Coming in the Fall!

Grades 2–6 will be using the FaithWeaver curriculum from Group Publishing in the fall. This is a new curriculum for our Faith Formation program. “FaithWeaver—Weaving Faith into Life” has a goal of getting families talking about their faith.

FaithWeaver brings families together by focusing on the same Bible lesson for all family members, and sparking meaningful conversations about faith and life on a day-to-day basis. The activities and discussion question are lively and engaging. The “Driving Home the Point” take-home piece will help all ages talk about the Bible lesson on their way home.

There will be additional training for teachers so that we can take advantage of the features of this curriculum and parent meetings to explain the structure and concepts. More information will be coming later in the summer.

From the Director of Christian Education

One of my favorite Bible passages has been in Revelation 21:5, where the Lord God says, “See, I am making all things new.” The “new” is coming to University Lutheran Church of Hope—just as it comes again and again. The Lord God keeps on creating, keeps making things new. We help with that creating process.

New pieces are being added to the Music Camp, making it the Music and Arts camp. Per Halaas will be doing some drama pieces. There is a new summer twist, with the Summer Reading Program funded with a grant from the Trust Board. There will be a new curriculum for some of the children in the fall. The Godly Play program will continue for the younger children, but grades 2–6 will have a new curriculum to explore and use. Some pieces of this curriculum might also be used with the high-school youth and as adult studies or with parenting groups.

I suspect that more “new” stuff will be happening in the fall. We are a congregation that is alive, and that means we keep changing. So we rejoice (sometimes tentatively, with fear and anxiety) about the new things that the Lord God is bringing into our midst. Let us encourage and support one another as we move forward into the new.

Your partner in ministry,

—Diane E. Shallue

More New Books in the Church Library

(Content summarized by Diane Shallue)

Trend-Savvy Parenting, by Mary Manz Simon. This book summarizes how children are impacted by our current culture.

A Light in the Window, by Jan Karon. The second book in the Mitford series is about Father Tim, an Anglican priest who lives in a small town in the south. It is a heart-warming book with interesting characters.

The Screwtape Letters, by C. S. Lewis. We have a new copy of an old classic. It is a satirical look at human life from the viewpoint of Screwtape, an assistant to “Our Father Below,” or the devil. It is a funny and yet serious look at temptation and triumph over it.

In the Days of the Angels: Stories and Carols for Christmas, from Walter Wangerin, Jr. This collection of short stories opens our hearts to the truth of Christmas.

The Godbearing Life: The Art of Soul Tending for Youth Ministry, by Kenda Creasy Dean and Ron Foster. This book is a new look at youth ministry and ways to grow faithful young adults.

Boundaries with Teens: When to Say Yes, How to Say No, by John Townsend. This book has great advice and insights for parents raising teenagers. Materials created by Townsend are used by Christian family therapists and parenting groups.

Amazing Grace: William Wilberforce and the Heroic Campaign to End Slavery, by Eric Metaxas. This biography about William Wilberforce was the basis for the new movie, Amazing Grace. He was a British gentleman converted to Christianity who made ending the slave trade his purpose in life.

June 10 Congregational Meeting

Thank you to everyone who attended or hosted an in-home gathering to discuss the Mission Renewal process. Having had an opportunity to have our questions answered and our concerns addressed in small group settings, we are now better prepared to move into our June 10 Congregational Meeting.

What is the purpose of the June 10 meeting?

The purpose of the meeting is twofold: to review the budget status at mid-year, and to provide an update on the Mission Renewal implementation process.

What was the impetus for the June 10 meeting?

In the final months of 2006, our congregation faced a difficult financial struggle to balance the budget. When December rolled around, we had a shortfall of $40,000 in our budget. We are immensely grateful that the congregation was able to come through with the money in the end, but it was a scary time for our Board and staff, and we want to avoid a similar scenario in 2007. Consequently, as part of the budget proposal for 2007, a mid-year congregational meeting was included so that the congregation could revisit its financial situation mid-way through the budget year in order to avoid another difficult December.

What other business will be conducted on June 10?

At the annual meeting in February, a motion was made that, when we revisit our finances at the June 10 meeting, if our finances are on target, we look at awarding a retroactive salary raise to our staff. As a reminder, the budget that we passed in February included a 3% salary raise for staff, but it was to be instituted July 1 rather than January 1 as a cost-saving measure.

What about Mission Renewal?

Though the original purpose of the June 10 meeting was budgetary, the timing also coincided with the culmination of much of the work of the Mission Renewal Task Force. Therefore, it also seemed appropriate that we visit some of the implementation issues associated with Mission Renewal as well, since we will have the whole congregation together.

Will there be votes on Mission Renewal?

At the time of this writing, the exact agenda for the Mission Renewal portion of the meeting had not yet been solidified. However, one item that has been determined is that there will be a vote on a motion to adopt the proposed new Mission & Values Statement of the congregation, which is reprinted on the opposite page. It is likely that there will also be a vote on a resolution expressing appreciation and support for the work of the Mission Renewal Task Force as we proceed with implementation.

Please plan to attend this important meeting on June 10 in Fellowship Hall following the 10:00 a.m. summer service. As always, please feel free to contact me at (612) 302-8732 or at President@ulch.org with your questions and concerns.

—Congregational President Karmi Anna Mattson

Latin American Sabbatical

My wife, two sons, and I have decided to take a year-long family sabbatical to a Latin or South American country starting this fall. Many of my clients, colleagues, and friends asked me to let them know when we figured out where we were going. Well, I am happy to report that our plans are pretty well set. Here are the details:

We are going to be in Costa Rica, just outside the capital city of San Jose. If you look at a map, you will see that it is right in the middle of the country. I will have the pleasure of working with my wife, Nancy, who will be serving as a physician for a non-profit organization called the Foundation for International Medical Relief of Children (FIMRC). They established a clinic two years ago that serves Nicaraguan refugees and very poor Costa Ricans. You can find out more about it at: www.FIMRC.org/about_project_alajuelita.php

If you feel inspired to make a financial contribution to help with the costs of running the clinic, you can click on the “Donate” link on the website. Since FIMRC supports medical relief in multiple countries, you should put “CR 2007-08” in the “Project” field (or on the “Memo” line of your check) to direct your money to the Costa Rican clinic.

We are doing this because we want to experience another culture in a deep and meaningful way, make a difference in the lives of those less fortunate than us, give the boys an opportunity to really improve their Spanish, and strengthen our bonds as a family as we take a bit of a break from our hectic lives. We chose Costa Rica because, while it obviously has the Latino culture and language we are seeking, there is also a growing expatriate population, so that brings a certain comfort level. And, of course, it has the beauty of its rain forests, mountains, and beaches—so we know we will likely have lots of visitors.

Let us know if you have any questions (or advice!).

—Steve Struthers

Minutes from Board of Commissioners Meeting

May 9, 2007

Present: Administrator Craig Wiester, Worship's James Hlavka, Pastor Kwanza Yu, Care & Nurture's Sharla Aaseng, President Karmi Mattson, Facilities' Fred Kreider, Stewardship's Tim Gustafson, Education's Lisa Morse, Pastor Craig Shirley, Outreach's Marty Lewis-Hunstiger, Social Justice's Karen Westwood, Sonja Peterson representing the Mission Renewal Task Force, Vice President Bob Moluf, & Treasurer Norris Waalen.

Absent:

Past-President Garvin Davenport.

President Karmi Mattson started the meeting at 7:00 p.m. We went around the table with brief check-ins.

President Karmi Mattson reminded us of the minutes approval procedure.

New governance structure recommendation

Sonja Peterson took the floor, making her presentation on the proposed new governance structure that the Staffing & Governance Team of the Mission Renewal Task Force has been working on these last few months. She explained that the current Board of Commissioners, consisting of the 4 executives plus the eight commissioners, would be supplanted by a new Vision & Governance Board, consisting of the same executives, plus representatives (not necessarily chairs) of, rather than Commissions, Ministry Areas, of which there will be five: Worship & Music, Hope in the World, Youth & Young Adult, Education, and Relational Ministries. There would be two additional Ministry Areas, one for Leadership & Communications and another for Operations.

We had a quick run around the table ascertaining board members' initial impressions of the proposal. This led to some worthwhile discussions.

Ending the discussion, President Karmi Mattson mentioned the idea of suspending the relevant portion of the bylaws while we try this new structure, making changes as needed. We'd then return to the congregation after, say, two years, asking them to ratify new bylaws reflecting what we've chosen to do. We discussed this, including implementation, at some length.

At the June 10 congregational meeting, we'll present the new mission statement & the budgetary discussions. After the meeting, new governance structure information will then be made available to the membership. A meeting will be scheduled in the early fall to ratify the proposed changes. We'll hash out the bylaw implications at next month's Board of Commissioners meeting. Pastor Craig Shirley suggested Commissions have a look at the proposed new structure and bring their ideas to next month's Board meeting.

Sonja Peterson then left the meeting.

Replying to a query from Marty Lewis-Hunstiger, Treasurer Norris Waalen reported the budget discussion at the June Congregational Meeting will be a general financial discussion, not simply a review of staff salaries.

April Financials

Treasurer Norris Waalen continued with a discussion of the April financial reports. Giving in 2007 is either flat or slightly reduced over 2006. We discussed how to communicate this problem to the congregation, something we have apparently not done well. We went into more discussion on how and why we are short of expectations. Norry and President Karmi Mattson will work together on how to present this to the congregation. Pastor Craig Shirley suggested we do a quick analysis of giving against pledges and be prepared to communicate to the congregation prior to the June meeting. Pastor Craig Shirley and Stewardship's Timothy Gustafson will prepare a letter, planning to get it out by June 4. We'll also convene the finance team and have a report in the Visitor.

Mission Renewal Task Force Gatherings

President Karmi Mattson reported we have had two home gatherings; more are on the way. RSVPs are pretty slow; most simply come when they can, reservations or not. The meetings so far have been productive.

Board-Sponsored Congregational Event

Sharla Aaseng has picked July 15 and is planning to serve a tea that day.

Confidential Information Policy

Bob Moluf distributed his draft proposal on the handling of confidential information. He solicits our further ideas. He expects to have a final proposal for the next meeting.

Employee Code of Conduct

The Personnel Committee has suggested we have such a policy on file; they are working on it.

May Fellowship Meal

May 20 is a Fellowship Meal. It's also the send-off for Audrey Keller. Bernice Davenport is the point person. They need some additional help.

Staff Support Committee

David Ranheim, Marilyn Preus, and Bryan Kufus were approved as Staff Support Committee members at last month's Board meeting. It was moved, seconded, and carried to add Beata Rydeen and Rebecca Tetlie as the final two members of the Staff Support Committee.

Rally Day

Lisa Morse mentioned Rally Day, wishing to get started on plans. She distributed an ambitious proposal for that day, September 9, 2007. Because of possible conflict with the Rummage Sale, we will have to be careful.

Guest Preachers

Craig Shirley reported that Superintendent Henker from Leipzig will preach from our pulpit on June 3; Bishop Bvumbwe from Malawi will be preaching on June 10.

We adjourned at 9:15.
