Thoughts From Pastor Amanda Simons

“Let gratitude be the pillow upon which you kneel to say your nightly prayer. And let faith be the bridge you build to overcome evil and welcome good.”

~ Maya Angelou, Celebrations: Rituals of Peace and Prayer

This quote by author Maya Angelou has been reverberating in my thoughts these past couple of weeks as I’ve been preparing for our worship life together in the month of November. Amid reflection upon our 2026 general fund appeal “Lead with Love”, the gratitude and generosity of the Thanksgiving season, and our partnership with All Nations Church, I have wondered how to bring all these themes together into our worship life as a congregation – and I keep coming back to this quote.

How do I rest into a pillow of gratitude at night? Rather than carry forward my worries into the night? Can I let go and trust God? Can I truly abide in the Psalmists words: Be still and know that I am God (46). How does gratitude flow into faith?

For us as a community, what are the bridges that we have built that allow space for gratitude to flow into faith and welcome good? What are the bridges that need repair or no longer need to be? Where and how do we need to build new bridges to overcome evil and build good? How do we sustain one another in gratitude and faith?

I have so many questions. Which questions do you bring forward to God? What words are reverberating in your mind and heart this day? What is the Holy Spirit transforming within you? Within our community?

For this season of Thanksgiving, I recommit to the daily practice I began years ago upon reading Diana Butler Bass’ book “Grateful.” I greet the sun, say “Thank you, Lord, for this day” and then I name 3 people or things that I am grateful for. Perhaps it is time for me to let gratitude be the pillow upon which I kneel to say my nightly prayer too.

I encourage you to commit to a practice of gratitude in your own life. And ponder anew: How is the Spirit transforming me so that all may be well in my soul for my relationship with self, neighbor, and the Divine?

Lastly, I invite you to worship this November, online and in person, and to rest into gratitude (however, you define it or feel it). As the body of Christ of together, we are fed and renewed, sent forth into our daily living to lead with love.

The Serviceberry" Study

Join members of our congregation us for a three-week journey through Robin Wall Kimmerer's "The Serviceberry," with reflections written by Dr. Kelly Sherman-Conroy on gratitude, reciprocity, and the gifts of creation. This study blends Indigenous and Christian teachings, exploring what it means to live in right relationship with the land and with one another. It was written with the hopes of strengthening relationships between All Nations Indian Church and their supportive partner congregations. We will gather after worship on November 9th, 16th and 23rd in the library with a light lunch provided. All Are Welcome.

Care and Nurture Ministries

We are living through challenging days as a nation. As a faith community, we have some ministries that can support you during these times in addition to the support of a pastor. Trained lay leaders on the Compassion Care Team can support through listening, prayer and accompaniment. Friendly Visitors can help support families caring for a loved one who doesn't leave home very often or is experiencing loneliness. If you or a loved one are in need of additional spiritual care support, contact Pastor Maria (mariaa@ulch.org) to learn more about these options. You do not have to endure suffering or challenges alone.

Wild Church Gathering

November 8th, 2-3:30pm, Nicollet Island.

ISIAH People's Convention

ISIAH is part of a coalition of pro-Democracy groups who have taken on the goal of putting 13.5 Million people in the streets protesting the actions of the current administration on July 4, 2026. ISIAH has committed to mobilizing 200K Minnesotans on that day. ISIAH is calling this the "Palm Sunday Path." This is a reference to the counter-cultural protest that Jesus' followers conducted to demonstrate against the triumphal entry of Pontius Pilate into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, along with the might of the Roman legions. ISIAH is sponsoring a day of learning and community organizing on December 13, 2025 from 12-6 at the Minneapolis Convention Center to present their Anti-Authoritarian legislative priorities for the coming session and to begin the planning process for 2026 "Palm Sunday Path" events leading up to July 4th. ISIAH is planning to have 5,000 show up for their "People's Convention" on that day. We will have signup sheets and more information about the December 13th event at an ISIAH table by the Welcome desk for the Sundays leading up to December 13. If you were wondering what you could do to prevent the breakdown of democracy in this nation: (1) Stop by. (2) Ask your questions. (3) And sign up.

If you are interested in being a part of an ISIAH core team to help plan our actions at ULCH, please contact Pastor Maria (maria@ulch.org) or John Beane (pilgrim.beane@gmail.com).

Gratitude and Generosity in 2026

"You gotta put one foot in front of the other and lead with love."

Paul Douglas in a daily forecast recently asked the question, "So is it time to dig out the parkas and boots? Test the snowblower? His conclusion was a weather forecaster's definite "not yet-maybe".

It may not quite be the time for our Norwegian sweaters, Uggs, and Sorels (we hope), but this is an appropriate season for prayerfully reflecting on how we will live our faith in the coming year.

Commitments don't come easily in the midst of uncertainty (and there is more than plenty of that), but in the spirit of Melanie DeMore's song, sometimes you just gotta put one foot in front of the other [maybe just in timid small steps or maybe in big strides that foster your courage] and lead with love.

To encourage your deliberations, brief gratitude and generosity stories will be shared in our November 9, 16 and 23 worships and will be the focus of the November 16 Adult Forum.

We hope that once again you will continue to generously support Hope as part of your faith response, both in your time and in your resources. As in previous years, you will be provided with pledge cards to declare your financial intentions. Your pledges will be blessed in the November 23rd worship and will determine our church's mission and budget in 2026.

We thank you for your faithfulness. Know that you are in our prayers as you consider your response to God's goodness.

The Gratitude and Generosity Committee:

Don Hauge, Ben Hartmann, Karen Westwood and Bill Sanden and Pastor Amanda Simons

President's Report

Dear Hope friends,

You may have heard that I agreed to serve out the remainder of John Pignatello's term as president while he's away with Karen in North Macedonia. I'm happy to have the opportunity to serve the congregation in this way, but I'm beginning to realize that the job is a bit more complicated than I remember from my earlier term. Even so, I'll do my best.

These are exciting days in the life of our congregation. We've just celebrated the installation of the Rev. Amanda Simons as our lead pastor, joining our excellent team of Pastor Maria Anderson-Lippert and Paul Stever, minister of music and worship. We're within spitting distance of paying off our mortgage. And if our country seems to be all twisted up with fear and hatred and greed and vulgarity these days, well ... what better time to cling to a church that bears the name Hope?

Our beloved former minister of music and worship Bill Beckstrand, now ordained and leading the beautiful Trinity Lutheran Church in Hovland, has been crafting sermons that prove his composition skills are not confined to music. He recently wrote: "Frederick Buechner, one of the best Christian writers ever, said that faith is a kind of homesickness, and I love that ... that our dull sense of longing and restlessness and anxiety is evidence of our faith! Faith is not a 'position' or a formula or a set of convictions ... Faith has nothing to do with certainty — though we all cling to that false idea. Faith, Buechner says, is 'sensing a presence, not buying into an argument.'"

I hope and trust that in these next few months we'll have many opportunities to sense that presence together.

In Christ,
Eric Ringham

Treasurer's Report

September Financial Highlights

- General giving for August was $33k, 87% of the budgeted amount. YTD totals $386k, stable at 94% of the budgeted amount.
- Income YTD totaled $512k at 93% of the budgeted giving. This number includes general giving, PEASE Academy rent and rental income.
- Expenses YTD totaled $588k, which is 7% above the budgeted amount. The staff, V&G Board, and Facilities team continue to monitor these expenses.
- We continue to encourage ministry areas (Education, Hope in the World, Worship, Relational and Youth & Young Adult) to continue to utilize allocated funds for their dedicated purposes.

Our new Financial Administrator has been hired and started work Monday, October 20 – Welcome Catherine! Many thanks, again, to Emma Carpenter for her valuable support in this transition time. Emma offered an insightful post-service financial status overview on Sunday, October 26th. Highlighted during this time were the fact that while giving is strong and generous, expenses YTD outweigh giving. We continue to monitor status of both giving and expenses as we thoughtfully prepare for next year's budget.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email me at jackdant@comcast.net.

Best regards, Jack Dant, Interim Treasurer

Changes to the Thursday Epistle Process

Submissions for the Thursday Epistle need to be received by 12pm on Mondays. Submissions after that time will be added the following week. Submissions should be sent to TE@ulch.org. Thank you.

Life Events

We're a community called to hold one another in prayer in every season—in our deepest need and grief, and in our experiences of new life. Here are a few of the life events affecting our community. We need your help to know for what we can pray. Please alert a pastor or contact the church office. We include in prayer...

Welcoming children and Baptisms—We pray for all who await and welcome children through joyful and challenging times.

Marriages—We pray for all those preparing for marriage, and for all relationships of commitment.

Deaths— We pray for God's strong embrace for all who grieve deaths and losses, those that are recent and those that were many years ago and whose memories fill us. We especially pray for the Bob Dickhaus and family at the death of Pat Frolen family and the Ganzkow-Wold family at the death of Cyndi Ganzkow-Wold.

Significant Illness—We pray for those living with illness, cancer, recovery, uncertain diagnosis, hospice, chemical dependency and other addictions, and mental health struggles, including Zoe, Wendy, Miriam, Rosalie, Nyla, Jeanne, Roger, and Paul. We also pray for caregivers.

We pray for all who are impacted by new beginnings, separation, divorce, retirement, moves, graduations, and the civil rights movements of this time trusting in God's love, grace, and guidance at all times.
